A Group Picture of The Boys and Girls Who Attended Clear Creek Baptist Camps

Mrs. Caudill was formerly teacher in the schools of Letcher County and was a member of the Regular Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held at the home at Uz by Elder Felix Fields, Friday, September 9 at 10 o'clock with interment in the family cemetery near the home.

Repeating this word of thanks to all and trusting heaven's smile may rest upon all of our people we are,
Very truly,
Mrs. Maggie Caudill
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Caudill
Mr. and Mrs. John B. Caudill
Mr. and Mrs. Hargis Simmons
Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Tolliver
And Miss Louisa Caudill

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and consoling words during the recent illness and death of our mother and wife, Mrs. Ethel B. Dixon. We also wish to thank Elder Felix Fields for the consoling words of sympathy he spoke and all who did so much to help us in our hour of need to carry our burden of sorrow.

Attendance at the weekly club meetings has continued to increase. Each week the interest in the club has grown and new members have been added to the membership. At the meeting Monday night in the Quarterly Court room at the court house, nearly ever seat was full. If the interest keeps on growing it will not be long before they will be using the circuit court room for the meetings. Drop in some Monday night and join in the discussion, you will enjoy it and you may have some ideas to give the club to aid in the work being done. HAVE YOU JOINED?

Obituary

Funeral services for Henry C. Caudill, thirteenth child of the late W. J. "Stiller Bill" and Nancy Dickson Caudill, born December 8, Branch at Indian Bottom, (later Blackey) Letcher County Kentucky, 1866 on Christian (later Caudill's) Blackey) Letcher County Kentucky, where he grew to manhood with his nine brothers and six sisters. The following of them survive him: Mrs. Susan Cornett, age 85 years and Mrs. Martha Cornett, age 70 years, both of Diablock, Ky.; Isaac D., age 79 years, of Roxana, Ky.; John B. and the baby of the family, Chandler, Okla.; George W. of Roxana, Ky.

Married Maggie Collins, December 22, 1887 which was a happy union for little more than fifty years. Unto them was born two sons and three daughters, William H. and Mrs. Malsia Simons, of Whitesburg, Ky.

Johnny of Polly, Ky. Lavada Tolliver of Jenkins, Ky. and Louisa, who lives with her parents. Also has a number of grand children and great grand children. All of this family are highly respected by who ever known.

He never took fellowship with any church, but was an ardent believer in the old time Regular Baptist faith and Orthodox Order of same. A constant reader of the "Book of all books", the Bible.

Good principals dominated his life. He was truthful. His word was his bond. He worked and managed in the light. Fair in his dealings. He did not seek to advance himself at the expense of his fellow men. He wanted for himself and his only, what was fair and right.

No traveler was ever turned away from his table for want of that which he could grant. He loved his kindred and neighbors, who with his family will miss him around and about his home at Red Star, Ky. His hospitality and pleasant conversations are heard no more.

His passing has broken the earthly family circular, but we trust it will be complete again some day in that "better home over yonder."

His passing was sudden, from heart failure on the afternoon of September 6, 1938. On Thursday the 8th Inst. by 10 a.m. his kindred and friends, from Hazard, Whitesburg, Knott County, from the valleys creeks and over the hills, by the hundreds were gathering at the Baptist Church at the Elmer Dixon Cemetery, where the body was laid. Aunt Clara Collins, his 94 year old mother-in-law was present.

The whole family and friends will ever be grateful to Elder G. M. Caudill, Moderator, Dawson Dixon, Clerk, and the members of this church for their kindness in opening their door and inviting them into it for the services.

To Aunt Maggie and the children and friends may you comply with these spiritual conditions which will prepare you for a glorious passing like his.

Active Pall Bearers; I. D. Caudill R. B. Caudill, Sr., C. B. Caudill, Letcher Collins, Byrd Collins, and J. D. W. Collins.

Honorary Pall Bearers were W. J. Caudill, John Back, Ace Collins, Arthur Dixon, Bony Caudill, Jim Caudill, Cleveland Caudill, Dawson Dixon, R. B. Caudill, Jr., Print Ison, E. B. Collins, Pearl Watts and I. T. Dixon.

All came to pay tribute and hear the gospel messages as delivered by the Devine power through the preaching by Elder W. S. Akers and Willie Francis.

NOTICE!

Sergent News

Mr. Junior Webb, stationed with the Three C's at Putney, Kentucky was over visiting with his parents during the week end of 9-10-11-12. Junior don't come home as often as some of the boys from the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Mr. Walker King made a business visit to Whitley County last Saturday and returned.

Mr. J. D. King is visiting with friends in Seco this week. Mr. King is one of our best citizens and an old age pensioner. He will probably spend his remaining days here, with his sons, Walter and Harry.

Mr. A. C. Hunsucker and Charles Haynes, Jr. were visiting in Virginia last Friday and Saturday. They ported a wonderful trip.

Mr. Elmer Haynes, one of the C C C boys stationed at Putney was a visitor with his brother Charles here Saturday night to the surprise of all Mr. Haynes brought along his girl, Miss Elizabeth Tomlin, from Putney and they were joined together in happy wedlock by the Rev. Charles Haynes.

We wish them many years of happiness in their new undertaking.

Some of the larger Elkhorn Coal Companies are working better now and since a number of our citizens work from 8 to 15 miles away we find a general improvement in the business conditions. The day is here when a fellow must go out after work and the merchants out after business. There is no time except the allotted, to sleep. The live wire will hold out.

Mr. Arthur Chamber, Huntington, W. Va., was a business caller here the last week. We are always glad to have you with us, Arthur, and please call again.

Dr. Carl Pigman, young son of Dr. and Mrs. Pigman of Farraday was calling on the sick here this week. Carl sure is a hustler and never forgets the welfare of his patients. The most essential part of his practice is that he never fails to check up until he is sure all is well.

The Missionary meeting at the home of Miss Pattie Allen was well attended Monday, September 12th by many of our best women in town.

Miss Allen is fast winning a place in the hearts of all the citizens in and around Sergent.

Bottom Fork News

The P. T. A. sponsored a box supper at the school house last Saturday night which was a great success. The money will go to the school library fund.

The school is progressing nicely under the direction of Morris Hogg and Ward Williams.

At last the people of the district have opened up their hearts and allowed a WPA project to be started on our road. The work has helped a great deal already. The patrons hope to see the road through to Payne Gap.

A party was given at the home of Pruda Webb Sunday night in honor of Chester Webb. Games were played, refreshments were served, and everyone reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Crit Webb were in UZ Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Smoot Creek News

A better trained group could not be found than our new Sunday most charming personalities. One seems to read pureness in their faces. They're reserved in speech being cautious with each word lest a person become offended. As for the Scripture, each teacher can trace a passage through the Old Testament and show it's meaning in the New Testament. Real Teaching skill is observed in their object lessons. These teachers are music teachers - teaching the old hymns very successfully.

The children are learning fast. The adults enjoy the Bible lessons tremendously. A good number of children have learned a number of Scripture passages. The attendance increased the past Sunday considerably over the previous one. These good and faithful workers have brought a blessing to Smoot Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Adams arrived Monday morning to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Adams and family. Mr. Adams is a recent graduate of the University. He is planning on enrolling in the Medical College, Memphis, Tenn. the 27th of this month.

Our community is proud of our school driver, Mr. Bill Fields. He is dependable and the patrons have great trust in him.

Mr. James Combs is working on his son-in-law's home-to-be in Whitesburg this week. Mr. Johnny Adams helped him paint on Monday. They hope to finish the structure at an early date.

Mr. Johnny Adams and sons, Arnold and Ray, have their winter's supply of coal in the bin. They are now sewing rye and crimson clover for winter cover crops.

A recent improvement in livestock in our neighborhood is the purchase of a registered bull by Mr. H. Y. Brown. He contemplates purchasing a thoroughbred buck sheep and a male Duroc Jersey hog. H. Y. is a real farmer and stock man.

Things You Don't See On Smoot Creek: Charlie Tyree spending money; Glenn Frazier without his dogs; Arnold and Ray Adams at work; Gay Frazier at a party; Harlan Combs on the road; James Combs and Jim Banks loafing around; Virgil Adams driving a '37 Chevrolet car.

The Smoot Creek school is giving an entertainment and box-supper on Saturday night, October 1st, for the purpose of raising funds to purchase necessary school equipment. The public is cordially invited. Come and spend a few nickels in the interest of education for the boys and girls of our community.

Approximately 5,000 ewes were brought into Mercer County to replace inferior stock. Dr. W. I. Johnson obtained an excellent wheat yield following a soybeans crop on his Powell county farm.

More than 250 farmers took part in Union County's beef cattle day program.

Lower Rockhouse News

Fred Adams is tearing down his buildings that he has just finished recently and is moving them a distance of about six hundred yards. This will be quite a task and will require a considerable amount of time. The reason for moving is to find a better location to shelter from floods and storms, Mr. Adams advises us.

The homes of David and Stene Adams were in the dark Saturday night due to a transformer going bad on the rural electric line.

Mrs. Mermie Collins has been visiting her mother, Ms. Sarah Adams, and her sister, Mrs. Callie Blair last week end.

Mrs. Nora Blair has been suffering with a swollen face for several from an infection of the nasal cavity.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caudill spent the week-end with their daughter Mrs. Hubert Caudill of lower Rock House.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Pridemore visited Mr. Mark Pridemore over the week-end.

Mr. David D. Caudill of Doty Creek is suffering with nervousness and heart trouble.

Many people travelled quite a distance to attend the baptism of Mrs. Cora Caudill into the membership of the Doty Creek Church Sunday. The Doty Creek Church is a branch of the Indian Bottom Baptists.

Mr. Howard Caudill, teacher of the Doty night school, and Mr. John Quincy Adams, teacher of the Blair Branch Adult school, have been making plans for some competition in plays and games for the Adult enrollees.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS

New York — Business — Advent of cooler weather the last two weeks has boosted sales of department stores and other retail merchants in many sections of the country, with the result that the nation's retail sales this month may better the total for September, 1937. Optimism over long term business prospects is being generated by government spokesmen like Nathan Straus, U. S. Housing Administrator, who last week forecast one of the biggest building booms in America's history and Secretary of Commerce Roper who said there had been no slackening of the recovery movement which has been noticed since mid-June. Statistical evidence of business improvement includes reports that August steel production was best in 10 months, that railroad carloadings the week preceding Labor Day reached a new 1938 peak and that furniture manufacturers received more orders in the final half of August than in any previous two week period this year.

Washington — The National resources committee has submitted a report to President Roosevelt showing that the average income of all American families in the fiscal year 1935-36 was $1,622 and the average for all single individuals, $1,151. The average income of the poorest third, that is, the mean income of the poorest 13 million families and single persons — was $471. For the middle third of the nation whose incomes ranged from $780 to $1,450 the average was $1,076. For the highest third, with incomes ranging from $1,450 to more than $10,000 a year, the average was $3,000.

The Lighter Side — Growers in Georgia are harnessing electricity to remove the fur from peaches.... 76-year old William C. Durant, the former president of General Motors and reputed worth $100,000,000 at the peak of his career, will sell at auction his $500,000 home in New Jersey and his $250,000 art and furniture collection; he plans to live the rest of his life on proceeds as "business days are over".... A three ton elephant can stand supported on a half inch sheet of tempered plate glass, called tuff-flex, without breaking it.... A drug store in Dallas, Texas, has been closed only six hours since its original opening in 1908, once during a funeral of an owner's relative, once during a World War parade, and recently because of a Go-To-Church drive.

Busses That Bend — Competition for passenger traffic between rail roads, airlines, and bus companies is bringing a new era in transportation equipment. Latest vehicle for mass movement of passengers is a lightweight aluminum-alloy bus capable of carrying up to 140 persons. The first bus ever built with trolley car capacity, it is nearly 50 feet long, and steers with both fore and rear wheels like a hook and ladder fire-engine. To enable the bus to negotiate humps and depressions in the road, engineers of the Twin Coach and the B. F. Goodrich Companies cooperated in designing a flexible rubber hood and mid-joint. This takes the strain off the bus by allowing it to bend in the middle. After completion of test runs, it will be first placed in service in Baltimore, Md.

Things To Watch For — Men wear neckties with bold initials imprinted on the silk, a new novelty from Paris.... Beer Marketed in 7 ounce bottles for five cents to meet soft drink competition.... A new drug being experimented with at Yale Institute of Human Relations which is said to raise a person's "level of living", both mentally and physically.... Stream-lined bird cages to go with the new modern furniture.... New poultry and cattle feed called "semi-solid produlac", a by-product of whiskey-making.... An electric baby blanket which automatically adjusts itself to varying nursery temperatures....

Headlines in New York — Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company paid employees 38.9 cents of each dollar of sales in 1937, 31.4 cents for materials and supplies, 7.4 cents to stockholders and 5.7 cents in taxes.... Air transport industry to need new capital soon.... Mack Truck orders show increase.... Agriculture Department estimates 11,850,000 bale cotton crop; compares with 18,946,000 record last year.... Contracts awarded for engineering construction in first 8 months up 3.7 per cent over period last year.... proposal to broaden the scope of Social Security Act due at next session of Congress.... Deliveries of rayon yarn broke all records in July and August....

Mr. and Mrs. John Pendleton and Mrs. Pendleton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Prince E. Halcomb, spent a few days visiting relatives in Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Rocella and Mary Louise Bentley of Portsmouth, Ohio returned with the Pendletons for a week's visit in Whitesburg.

Tidbits of Kentucky Folklore

By Jordan Wilson, Ph.D.
WESTERN KENTUCKY
TEACHERS COLLEGE
BOWLING GREEN, KY.

I am eager to know the folk mind. This eagerness is partly scholarly and partly gossipy. I wish to know what and how the folk think so that I can judge people easily and justly. But even more than this desire to be just is the desire to know for the sake of knowing. So much has been written about folklore that it is openly false that I would like to be able to show its falsity and set some one right. It is a fad in our time for many people to pretend an interest in folk things, when in reality some of these same people are ashamed of any folk connection they may have. No high and mighty attitude toward the folk will ever accomplish anything except a widening of the gap between the classes. A belief that only the lowly and the ignorant are of the folk is utterly false; all of us at some time or other probably many times a day, are dependent upon the traditional as opposed to the scholarly or the scientific. A pseudo-folklore is about as genuine as the charity manifested by people who go slumming in order to see how the other half lives.

A very good experiment to try would be to put down for a single day one's impulses and decisions that are obviously prompted by tradition and not by any book knowledge. Suppose that you get your finger cut, or get stung by a bee. Do you use the medicine that science recommends, or do you fall back instinctively on what the neighborhood used when you were young? When some sudden trouble comes into your life, do you use the fine philosophy that you have built up, or do you resort to the traditional comforts? When night comes on, be sure that nothing bites you or snatches you away, that night is just as safe as day. But you probably are still conscious or unconsciously afraid of the dark and might be a little more sympathetic with the folk if you would study folklore at night rather than in broad daylight.

The mob spirit has always been known. Most popular heroes have been able to control this spirit to their own advantage. Not to do this has often meant defeat or death. But the mob spirit in public affairs is no more powerful or more obvious with the folk spirit in milder or calmer ways. Older than our oldest fashions in dress, now long forgotten are fashions in thought. Houses clothing, transportation, even speech may change rapidly, but folk attitude are our most impressive inheritances from an age so far back that recorded history knows nothing about it.

Christianity has now been the religion of a large percentage of humanity for hundreds of years. But nearly every person you know in spite of his church membership and his standing in his community has folk beliefs that are older than Christianity. Our little superstitions observations go back, often, beyond civilization itself. Christianity has adapted some of these observations to its own use and has reinterpreted them, but there are many more that still exist and influence nearly every life. We were folk, pagan folk, long before we became civilized or Christianized; hence we show our origin much as a pig shows its origin. It seems impossible to breed out of us our basic folk feelings.

BABY'S FIRST YEAR

"WE'RE lucky to get through the first year so easily," says the husband.
"Give our telephone some credit for that," says the wife. "For a few pennies a day it has done a big job for all of us."

For the first few months, the clasp of tiny fingers holds mother close to home, and only she can know how much a telephone helps. The countless times a call to the doctor brings welcome advice — calls to and from friends and relatives — orders to the druggist, grocer and others — and always, its reassuring presence for emergencies. Young fathers, too, thrive when they can interrupt the day's work to make sure that all is serene at home. Telephone service is desirable and low in cost. To order your telephone, just call the telephone business office today.

paid by the insurance companies."

A Plan Perfected

At the time Mr. Buckingham assumed duties as State Treasurer, there was a total outstanding State Warrent debt amounting to the sum of $25,084,643.17, January 6, 1936. The state debt was paying interest at the time at the rate of 5 percent.

Mr. Buckingham labored incessantly to perfect a plan whereby the outstanding 5 per cent warrents could be exchanged for 3 per cent warrents, thereby saving the state 2 per cent on its outstanding warrent indebtedness. In perfecting this plan, Mr. Buckingham has proven himself to be one of the most valuable men Kentucky has had in the post as Treasurer, and Eastern Kentucky has boasted many times that "It took a hillbilly like 'Mr. Buck' to find the way to refinance the state debt and pave the way for retirement of the debt."

The administration worked three weeks on another plan, getting advice from New York; Louisville lawyers and the Bluegrass said Mr. Buckingham's plan could not be perfected, and practically all the banks opposed the refinancing because it cut the interest rates from five per cent to two per cent. However when all other plans failed, there was nothing left but to take the "hill-billy plan" and the state debt was refinanced. Mr. Buckingham expressed confidence that the entire state debt could and would be paid during his Administration, and he praised the Governor as a "real Scotchman" who gave payment of the state debt prior consideration when purchasing suggestions were made.

There is now outstanding a balance of $6,854,400.00 of these new 3 per cent warrents. This refinancing has saved the state approximately $400,000.00, and a savings of about $11,500.00 per month from now on, or until the state debt is liquidated. While Mr. Buckingham had hoped that the state debt could be paid during this administration, he says: "Several things have happened lately that makes me dubious of this accomplishment. This debt should be retired as speedily as possible, and this form of indebtedness should be outlawed so that the state in the future will be limited to the constitutional indebtedness of $500,000,000 unless a bond issue should be authorized by a vote of the people. This would enable the state to reduce taxes and invite outside capital into the state. My slogan is and ever has been 'Keep the Budget Balanced and Pay the State Debt.'"

Improvements

"Formerly all colleges as well as the University of Kentucky and other institutions, the Highway Department and other divisions were issuing their own checks in payment of salaries and bills, their allotments being paid to them in lump sums. Now all of these checks are being written in the Treasurer's Office, resulting in large savings to the state."

"Formerly all checks were signed by the Treasurer personally, but I have installed a machine capable of signing more checks each hour than could be signed by hand all day. This machine not only signs checks, but cuts them apart and stacks them numerically in sets of five, or singly, as desired. A check writing machine has been installed, which dates, addresses and signs the Old Age Assistance checks — in fact it produces checks at the rate of 3,000 an hour."

"The Treasury Department, which originally consisted of the Treasurer, his assistant, Bookkeeper, Check writer, Stenographer and a warrent clerk, now employs 14 persons — a force trained in efficient and courtesy."

Hinkebein To Captain 1938 Wildcat Gridders

Lexington, Ky. Sept. 13 — More than 100 varsity candidates and freshmen were on hand September 1st when Ab Kirwan, new head coach at the University of Kentucky called the first football practice session of the season on Stoll Field. There are 45 varsity men on the squad.

The first player to be handed a uniform was stalwart Sherman Hinkebein, 200-pound center from Louisville, who will captain the Kentucky Wildcats this season. Recognized as one of the South's greatest centers, Hinkebein was as usual, in perfect condition when he reported for duty, having spent the summer as life guard and swimming instructor at the Big Spring Country Club at Louisville.

Coach Kirwan and his corps of assistants divided their promising crew of freshmen into two groups having one group practice in the mornings and the other in the afternoons. The varsity men hold two practice sessions each day.

The fact that Coach Kirwan and Athletics Director Berney Shively obtained fine results during the past spring and summer in their tours of the state in search of new material with which to build up future Wildcat teams, is shown by the fine crop of freshmen who reported to them September 1. They hail from all parts of the state.
